Dr. Gregory G. Fitch
Executive Director
Alabama Commission on Higher Education
PO Box 302000
Montgomery, AL 36130-2000

Dear Dr. Fitch,

Alabama A&M University is proposing the opening of a degree completion site on the campus of Concordia College in Selma, Alabama. At this location the University plans to offer the last two years of its degree programs in: Computer Science, Criminal Justice and Social Work.

Since the Dallas County area is not a part of Alabama A&M University's service area, the University has made contact with and secured the approval of officials from Troy University and Auburn University-Montgomery. Copies of the approvals are affixed to this message. Alabama A&M University seeks to launch these off-campus programs in the Fall of 2014.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Daniel Wims'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial 'D'.

Daniel Wims, Ph.D.
Provost and Vice- President for Academic Affairs

Alabama Commission on Higher Education

Hello Dr. Ingram,

I am reaching out to you on behalf of Dr. Vann Newkirk, Associate Provost/Graduate Dean, at Alabama A&M University. In early October you had a conversation with Dr. Daniel Wims, Provost here at AAMU, regarding proposed degree program offerings at Concordia College – Selma, AL.

Per a discussion with Ellen Haulman at ACHE, we have been advised to obtain a short written confirmation of your agreement to our decision to offer courses in Selma on the Concordia Campus. In the essence of time perhaps the easiest way to affirm this confirmation is simply to acknowledge this email.

I look forward to your response.

Kindest regards,

Dear Ms. Canady,

It is correct that I spoke with Dr. Wims last month and agreed that Troy University had no objections to AAMU creating a partnership with Concordia College.

Please let me know if you need additional information or assistance from me.

Thanks.
